

Job Title: Early Years Development Specialist (Freelance)

Organisation: ROKIL (Raising Our Kids in Love)

Rate: £20.00 – £30.00 per hour (Experience dependent / Self-Employed)

Location: Buckinghamshire (School-based and Community settings)

About the Role: We are seeking dedicated professionals or high-achieving students in the fields of Psychology, Education, or Child Development to join our specialist team. This role is at the heart of ROKIL's mission: providing bespoke interventions for children under 11 facing inclusion barriers, global developmental delay, or neurodivergent challenges.

Key Responsibilities:

- Bespoke Interventions: Delivering 1:1 and small-group support within primary schools to assist with behavioral regulation and classroom access.
- Inclusive Rhythms: Facilitating our specialist music-based program designed to bridge gaps in social skills and communication.
- Educational Tutoring: Providing targeted learning support for home-educated children or those requiring school-based catch-up.
- Progress Monitoring: Observing and documenting child progress to help refine intervention pathways.

The Ideal Candidate:

- A degree (or currently studying towards one) in Psychology, Education, or a related field.
- A deep interest in neurodiversity and the SPELL framework.
- Strong emotional intelligence and the ability to remain calm and empathetic in challenging behavioral situations.
